The Cat Came Back

Old Mister Johnson had troubles of his own,
He had a yellow cat who wouldn't leave its home.
He tried and he tried to give the cat away,
He gave it to a man who was going far away.

But the cat came back the very next day,
The cat came back
They thought he was a gonner,
But the cat came back
He just wouldn't stay away.

He gave it to a man who was going out west,
Told him to take it to the one he loved best.
First the train hit a curve then it jumped a rail,
Not a soul was left behind to tell the gruesome tale.

Away across the ocean they sent the cat at last,
Vessel only out a day and taking water fast.
People all began to pray,
The boat began to toss.
A great big gust of wind came by and every soul was lost.

The cat was a possessor of a family of its own,
With seven little kittens until a cyclone.
Blew the houses down and tossed the cat around.
The air was full of kittens and not a one was found.

We also sang a song called – I Bought Me a Cat.

Here is a link for youtube <https://youtu.be/zaUnJAbwdGw>
Listen and singalong or sing it by yourself later.

I bought me a cat. The cat pleased me.
I fed my cat under yonder tree.
The cat said fiddle – aye -fee.
